

FREE Online eNewsletters & Learning Tools

Did you know, through the City of Wanneroo's libraries you can access excellent business resources completely free, all you need is a library membership.

eNewsletters – Press Display for today's newspapers from around the world

Library Press Display provides instant online access to today's newspapers from around the world. The full-page format offers library members the most convenient way to read current edition newspapers from 100 countries in 56 languages, just like reading the familiar print edition. With the PressReader App library members can enjoy thousands of newspapers and magazines on smartphones, tablets, and eReaders.

A digital edition of The West Australian is also available just 24 hours after it goes to print. Using the following log in information you will be able to access archives as far back as 2004:

Username: Wanneroo Password: libraryuser

To access Press Display or The West Australian, go to www.library.wanneroo.wa.gov.au and look for eNewsletters on the right-hand side.

FREE Online Learning Tools

The Computer School is an online computer training database that specialises in easy-access online computer education. You can now instantly access anyday, anytime a powerful database that provides patrons with free access to hundreds of computer skills' tutorials, offering - immediate, quick-lesson education. Access is available from home and library branches with your City of Wanneroo library membership barcode. This includes:

- Computer Basics
- Internet Safety
- Microsoft
- Apple
- Androids
- Google
- Social Media

Become a Library Member – it's FREE

Not already a member? – join online today and pop in to any branch with ID to complete your membership.