A Liquor Licence from the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries is required to be obtained for the sale of liquor from a premise.

Section 40 of the Liquor Control Act 1988 requires a certificate from the local authority to be submitted for the grant or removal of a licence, or for a change in this use or condition of any premises, unless otherwise determined.

A Section 40 Certificate is required to state that the proposed use of the premises is consistent with the current planning approval affecting the property.

Please submit a copy of this form in conjunction with the below documents to apply for a Section 40 Certificate:

- ☐ Form LLD15 Section 40 Certificate of Local Planning Authority (a Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries form)
- ☐ Detailed Site Plan (to scale) clearly identifying the proposed liquor area intended for use; and
- ☐ Detailed Internal Floor Plan, highlighting the specific area/s where the liquor licence will apply (eg. Main Hall, Dining Room etc).
