Fire Control Officers (FCO)

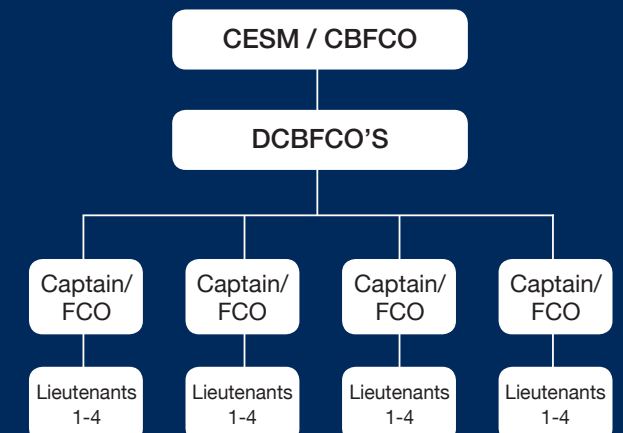

The FCO assists the CBFCO and the DCBFCO'S of the Fire Services.

Captain

Each Brigade has a Captain, and is elected each year at the Annual General Meeting (AGM). They chair the monthly meetings and are the highest ranked officers in each Brigade.

Lieutenants

Lieutenants assist the Captain, and are also elected at the AGM.

Overview

The City of Wanneroo's Volunteer Bush Fire Brigades provide a fire prevention and suppression service for the municipality, which encompasses an area of 685 square kilometres.

Approximately 160 volunteers work rostered times throughout the year with either the Wanneroo Fire Support Brigade, Quinns Rocks, Two Rocks, and Wanneroo Volunteer Bush Fire Brigades.

The City of Wanneroo's Volunteer Bush Fire Brigades also assist other Local Government Bush Fire Brigades and at the request of the Department of Fire and Emergency Services (DFES), also operate within the gazetted fire district.

In times of emergency The City of Wanneroo Bush Fire Brigades also assist other state government agencies with Fire Response in State Forests, Conservation lands and other Crown lands/reserves.

Thank you for your interest in joining one of our Volunteer Bush Fire Brigades.

How to become a member

To be eligible for one of the City of Wanneroo's Volunteer Bush Fire Brigades, you must attend at least one of the monthly meetings held with your respective Brigade.

At your first meeting, the Brigade Recruitment Officer will explain the membership details, roles and responsibilities. Before becoming active members, all eligible recruits will undergo a medical examination and basic training (this cost will be paid by the City of Wanneroo).

After two years of active service and extended training, members may then be qualified as crew leaders and to drive vehicles under emergency fire call conditions (lights and sirens).
