

Cavity insulation is a proven way to keep your home warmer in winter and cooler in summer. Given that up to 25 % of heat gain and loss in a typical brick home in Perth can be through the walls, it makes sense to prevent this waste of energy through incorporating cavity insulation.

In this home the cavity insulation is a blow-in rockwool fibre that is water repellent and installed after the brickwork is completed, which also makes it a viable alternative for renovations.

sponsored by

ROCKWOOL[®]
Cavity Wall Insulation

cavity insulation 23