Information for the owner of affected land

Under the Building Act 2011, a person responsible for building or demolition work must not encroach or adversely affect adjoining land (refer definitions in section 3 of that Act), unless they have the required consent of the affected adjoining owner(s) prior to a building or demolition permit being granted or the work commencing.

If the consent sought by this notice is not given by the affected adjoining owner(s) within 28 days, the person responsible for the work may apply under section 86 of the Building Act 2011 to the Magistrate's Court for a court order.

This response notice must be completed and returned to the person responsible for the work, usually the builder/demolition contractor, (refer part 6 below for details). Please keep a copy for yourself or ask the person responsible for the work to provide you with one.

The person responsible for the work may also request your consent to arrange for access to your property in order to carry out a survey of the affected land. You may indicate your consent at part 7 below.

For further information refer to the Building Commission's brochure 'Work affecting other land' available at www.commerce.wa.gov.au/building-commission.
