

Fill in the blanks

Stages 10 to 15

1. In DRSABCD the first 'D' stands for _____
2. The position to be used when approaching a casualty in difficulty is the _____

3. What type of wave is the safest when body surfing? _____
4. In the 4 As, what A stands for 'recognising the emergency'? _____
5. When conducting a rescue, what is the safest rescue type to try first? _____
6. When assisting a casualty out of shallow water, what exit should be used? _____

7. The acronym PFD stands for _____
8. What entry is most appropriate when you need to keep watching the casualty?

9. The acronym HELP stands for _____
10. After rescuing a conscious casualty you need to provide _____