

Interested in Volunteering?

Nic, City Volunteer

Are you passionate about Community?

City of Wanneroo's Volunteer Program

gives you the opportunity to offer your skills, time and passion to the places and spaces you love in your local community.

You'll be able to get involved in a range of different community-based programs and services and in doing so, you can help change lives, improve the environment and produce a more connected community.

As a City volunteer you'll be helping to make your community a vibrant, progressive and prosperous place to live, work and visit.

Volunteering with the City of Wanneroo

There's never a day there without laughter, either from the other volunteers or the kids. I never leave without a feeling of fulfilment.

– Katie, Buckingham House Education volunteer

Volunteering with the City is a varied, diverse and exciting experience. Volunteers are involved in a range of areas such as:

- Conservation
- Museums, galleries and heritage houses
- Children's programs and services
- Technology assistance
- Community history
- Books on Wheels
- Library services
- English Conversation Group.

What can volunteering do for you?

Volunteering doesn't just change the lives of others; it is also proven to improve the lives of those who choose to volunteer, with benefits you'll experience including:

- Making new friends
- Improved mental health
- Satisfaction from supporting a cause you're passionate about
- Learning new skills and building confidence
- Feeling valued and part of a team
- Improved employment prospects
- Sense of achievement from knowing that you're helping your local community.

I enjoy volunteering because it enables me to meet and engage with people I would not normally come into contact with. Through driving I have discovered areas of my City that I did not know existed and the history behind it.

– Ken, Community Transport volunteer

Thank you!

The City appreciates the wonderful work of all its volunteers and is always keen to hear from passionate community members who are interested in volunteering.
