WEBBER, Joanne

After growing up in the northern suburbs and living in Clarkson for eight years, my husband and I couldn't imagine raising our two kids anywhere else. We love the beaches, sports clubs and parks. I work for a not-for-profit community association and volunteer as Vice President of the P&F at my kids' school. If elected as your Central West Ward councillor I will use my 15 years' experience in communications, government policy and advocacy to provide common sense solutions to local issues. I will work to support small business in these challenging times, expand the entertainment options for parents needing a night out and further enhance our public spaces. Most importantly, I'd love to make a greater contribution to our community by listening to your ideas and helping turn them into reality.
