BAULCH, Rikki

Raising a family in the local area, Rikki wants to see our community thrive not just today but long into the future.

As a Business Development Executive, Rikki knows the importance of hard work, customer service, and getting things done, along with the difficulties faced by local businesses.

Raising two young daughters (one with special needs) during the current cost of living crisis, Rikki knows what it's like to do it tough. That's why helping families & seniors by freezing rates for 2 years is part of his plan to put residents first, with a 'back-to-basics' approach.

To target crime, anti-social behaviour and hooning, his strategies include faster liaison and more patrols by Rangers & Police. He will also fight for better maintained verges & parks & to protect our hard-fought freedoms.
