My name is Clyde Goodenough. I am a dedicated educator and passionate community advocate who has lived in the local area for the past four years. Born in Singapore and migrating to Perth, I’ve called Australia home for 40 years. Since 2008, I have worked as a high school teacher, committed to empowering young minds through education. Beyond the classroom, I am deeply involved in community theatre, where I combine creativity with a love for storytelling to bring people together. My lifelong passion lies in helping others, whether by improving educational opportunities, strengthening community resources, or working to make my neighbourhood a better place to live. A devoted husband to Raelene for 26 years and a proud father of three, my life reflects a deep sense of purpose, connection, and service. My journey over the last 54 years is marked by a belief in the power of local community and a tireless commitment to making a difference in the lives of others.
